BRYAN MEN WILL LOSE NEW YORK?

HARD FIGHT TO BE WAGED IN HIS BEHALF.

WANT INSTRUCTED DELEGATES

OPPOSITION TO COMMONER IS STRONG IN STATE.

CONVENTION OPENS TODAY

Two Days Will Be Required by New York Democrats to Prepare for National Gathering at Denver—Bryan League Makes Strong Appeal.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The Democratic state convention, which will open at Carnegie hall at noon tomorrow, promises to be as interesting in its deliberations as in its conclusions. A two days' session is planned, and unless all signs fail, the time alloted will be required for the business at hand.

First and foremost, there will be a determined fight in the interests of the candidacy of W. J. Bryan. The Bryan men will in all probability lose, and an uninstructed delegation will be sent to the national convention at Denver.

The defeat of the Bryan men, who will be in a minority, is quite likely to be accomplished in the committee on resolutions. The committee, controlled by Tammany leader, Charles F. Murphy and Chairman W. J. Connors, is expected to squelch anything proposed in the way of minority report. The report of the majority will probably criticise the Republican administration and proclaim a Democratic victory in November, but will avoid a mention of presidential candidates and resolve that an uninstructed delegation be sent to the national convention. Any subsequent attempt to get the name of Mr. Bryan before the convention will be sat upon.

Demand Bryan's Indorsement.

Anticipating tomorrow's action, Augustus Thomas, the president and others of the Bryan Democratic Progressive league, tonight issued a statement demanding the indorsement of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Thomas has secured the proxy of an up-state delegate and will make a fight on the floor of the convention to have the league statement adopted as resolutions.

The Tammany organization was taken by surprise late today when Senator McCarren secured a supreme court writ compelling the placing upon the temporary roll call of the McCarren delegates from Brooklyn. It was too late for a counter court action today, and when the state committee met this evening the court order was obeyed. The end of this fight, however, is not yet. The anti-McCarren delegates from Brooklyn have already served notice that they will make an effort to have the court order vacated. A smart fight in the committee on credentials is inevitable, not only in the case of Senator McCarren's delegation, but as well in that of the contested delegations of Patrick McCabe from Albany county, and Joseph N. Carlisle from Jefferson county.

All three leaders have engaged in many campaigns, and they made it known clearly tonight that any attempt to unseat their delegates would be stoutly contested.

Bolt Is Rumored.

There was a meeting of the Bryan league tonight at which it was decided to strongly support President Thomas. There were also rumors of a bolt in the event that the convention refused to give any consideration to the move for Bryan. These rumors generally were not taken seriously.

Chairman Connors will call the convention to order, and Temporary Chairman Thomas Carmody, who will probably preside throughout, will make the principal address of the gathering.

Chairman Connors and Leader Murphy will be delegates-at-large, and others being tentatively considered tonight are Judge Alton B. Parker, John B. Stanchfield and Lewis Nixon.

Mr. Nixon is being talked of as the Bryan representative. It is understood that Mr. Murphy is not opposed to the selection of Mr. Nixon, who is known to be friendly to the Nebraskan's interests.

The Bryan league's statement follows:

"The Bryan Progressive Democratic league respectfully calls to your attention the following conditions existing in the country and offers these conditions as a reason why your honorable body should recommend to the convention the indorsement of the candidacy of William J. Bryan and the instruction of its delegates at the national convention in favor of that candidate.

Change Demanded by People.

"The league respectfully submits that the public conscience is awakened and a change in the policies adopted by [illegible] [illegible] demanded by the people, and opportunity of the Democratic party lies in showing to the people the evils that have grown up under the protective tariff.

"The trusts, which are the principal offenders against the law and are the great oppressors of the people, are the direct offspring of this tariff.

"The unlawful discrimination of the transportation companies is in favor of the interests that have grown powerful under the privilege conferred by this tariff.

"The reckless financiering that has shaken public confidence is the result of a predatory spirit in a class that this tariff, more than any other factor, has created and maintained.

"This is within the ranks of the Republican party a belief almost as fixed, rooted as the belief within the Democratic party, that the tariff should be revised.

Revision of Tariff Issue.

"The main question to be decided by the commission is whether this revision of the tariff shall be by the friends of the tariff and the beneficiaries of the system, or shall be by the people and the victims of the system.

"The answer to this question will not be greatly in doubt when we call the country's attention to the recent spectacle in Congress of a President in good faith recommending the removal of the duty from the single article of wood pulp and the refusal of his party to acquiesce in that modest reform although urged to do so by all the Democratic members of the House.

"The answer to the question will be still less in doubt if we can convince the people that the Democratic party, if intrusted with that duty of revision, will approach its task in a spirit of conservatism and not of demolition, that the re-

BUREAU IS ABOLISHED

TOURIST DRIVERS ASSOCIATION LOSES PRIVILEGE

Did Not Want Policeman to Have Charge—Aldermen Divided on Question.

A spirited argument over the question of who should control the so-called free information bureau, run during the last year by the Tourist Drivers association and still conducted by it at the corner of Tejon street and Pikes Peak avenue, occupied a large part of the City Council's time at its adjourned meeting last night, and resulted in an order to the chief of police to abolish the bureau within 10 days.

Two Petitions Presented.

The discussion was started by the reading of a petition from H. H. Stevens and 200 other citizens asking that the booth be managed by a uniformed officer appointed by the Council, to replace the man now in charge, who is a member of the Tourist Drivers association. A counter petition from the tourist drivers was also presented asking for the maintenance of the booth as at present conducted. Attorney S. H. Kinsley appeared in behalf of the first petitioners and explained that the reason for wanting a uniformed officer in charge was that at present the booth is conducted in the interests of special parties and not of the city as a whole. D. M. Friend, speaking for the tourist drivers, brought many arguments to bear against this contention and said that the association objected to having a police officer in charge, as the [illegible] that it had about $2,000 invested in advertising matter and preferred to manage its own business.

Vote Five to Three.

A tourist driver representing those not in the association also spoke, claiming that the interests of the non-union drivers had been practically ruined by the bureau and asking for the protection of the Council. The objection of the association to having a policeman in charge of the booth settled the question, and when Alderman John Hill made a motion to have the booth abolished, it received the vote of five of the aldermen, those voting in the negative being Frost, Holden and Hosman.

RIOT IN CHESTER, PA.

STREET CAR STRIKE LEADS TO SERIOUS TROUBLE.

Strikers Stone Cars Manned by Strike Breakers—Mob Subdued by Fire Department.

CHESTER, Pa., April 13.—A strike of conductors, motormen and other employes of the Chester Traction company followed by the importation of about 150 strike breakers and the summoning of a detachment of the state constabulary to assist the local police in preventing violence, precipitated a series of clashes between strike sympathizers and state police today. The state police were stoned and mobbed and several officers and civilians were hurt though none dangerously.

The events of the day have aroused the entire populace and the town is practically under martial law tonight with all the saloons closed and the street car barns and other property of the traction company under guard.

The trouble started when a mob prepared to stop the running of cars by strike breakers. The first car out of the barn was stoned and every window broken. This absolutely tied up every line of cars in Chester including the Southwestern trolley line to Philadelphia. While the strikers held themselves in readiness to prevent the operation of cars, a detachment of the state police under command of Captain Groome came upon the scene. Their appearance aroused the ire of the strikers and the officers were stoned [illegible] [illegible] was rendered unconscious, but not dangerously hurt. His coworkers came to the rescue and the strikers and their friends were driven away.

Several times thereafter the mounted state police were compelled to charge the crowds, but the worst disturbance came at nightfall when the strikers, augmented by several thousand men and women, charged the mounted police. A number of shots were fired and a horse belonging to private Sullivan was shot under him.

The rioters were subdued when the fire department was called out and water turned on the mob.

NO EVIDENCE OF ILLEGAL COMBINE

PROOF AGAINST SO-CALLED PAPER TRUST LACKING.

PROSECUTION IS IMPROBABLE

INVESTIGATION IS NOW BEING CONDUCTED.

INFORMATION IS WITHHELD

Attorney General Refuses to Submit to the House of Representatives Papers Pertaining to Inquiry. "Might Injuriously Affect Interests of Justice."

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The attorney general today sent to Speaker Cannon a letter in reply to the House resolution asking what steps have been taken by the government to investigate the alleged combination of wood pulp or print paper manufacturers. The attorney general says an investigation is in progress, but no evidence has yet been obtained to justify legal proceedings. He says that when an investigation and the report thereon is completed, he will submit them without delay if he can do so without affecting the interests of justice, but that if the investigation should lead to civil or criminal proceedings it may continue expedient to temporarily withhold from the public the evidence and information.

Attorney General's Reply.

The attorney general's letter follows:

"In response to resolution of House No. 320, transmitted to me under date of April 8, 1908, I have the honor to state that several weeks ago all evidence and information relating to its subject matter, in the possession of this subject matter, in the possession of this United States attorney of the appropriate district with orders to make or have made by a grand jury of the said district a thorough investigation of the matters in question. The said United States attorney was further instructed, if sufficient evidence could be thus obtained, to institute at once suitable proceedings in the federal court having jurisdiction in the premises with a view to punishing any offending parties and to secure in future strict obedience in this respect to the statute of the United States generally known as the Sherman anti-trust law.

Insufficient Evidence.

"Up to the present time no evidence has been obtained by the officers of this department sufficient to justify the institution of legal proceedings, either civil or criminal, against any alleged combination of wood pulp or print paper manufacturers; the information obtained however, justifies further investigation of the facts and such investigation is in progress.

"It would be inexpedient at the present stage of this investigation to disclose to the public specifically what steps have been taken, or what action is contemplated by the department with respect to matters mentioned in the said resolution. As above stated, these matters have been referred to a United States attorney for further inquiry and possible action in his judicial district, and it would be, in my opinion, incompatible with the public service to require him to suspend this inquiry so that the papers in his possession may be transmitted to the House of Representatives, and inadvisable, in the interest of justice, to make public at this time the precise information in the possession of said prosecuting officer.

Legal Proof Lacking.

"It is proper for me to say in this connection that certain alleged facts were submitted to this department when the above mentioned investigation was commenced, which apparently authorized the belief that serious and readily-proven offenses against the laws of the United States had been committed in the premises, and immediate action by the appropriate officer was thereupon promptly ordered but these orders disclosed that no legal proof could be secured of the alleged offenses, the evidence relied upon to establish them turning out to be merely hearsay and the complainant himself, who had furnished this information, refusing to give the name of a witness supposed to have personal knowledge of the said facts.

"Before taking action under the so-called antitrust law, it has been the unvarying practice of this department to very thoroughly sift the allegations of such complaints, and the considerable proportion of successful prosecutions under the said statute seems to justify this practice. In this instance information afforded, when so sifted, shows an undoubted, general and considerable increase in the prices of certain kinds of paper, but that such increase was due to any contract, combination or conspiracy in restraint of trade, was a matter of conjecture and suspicion only, although it seemed probable that proof to establish this might be found through a searching and judicious inquiry.

Papers Withheld.

"I regret that the public interest prevents me from fully and promptly complying with the request contained in the above mentioned resolution. When this investigation has been completed and the report of the United States attorney intrusted therewith is received, I may be in a position to furnish the House of Representatives with the papers and information called for without injuriously affecting the interests of justice and I shall, in such case, submit them without delay. If, however, the said investigation should lead to civil or criminal proceedings, it may continue expedient to temporarily withhold from the public, evidence and information now or hereafter obtained, bearing upon the situation until such proceedings shall have been finally determined."

NO WATER TO WASTE

SUPPLY MAY RUN SHORT IF USERS ARE EXTRAVAGANT.

Verner Says He Will Prosecute Those Who Do Not Comply With Regulations.

There is some danger of the water supply of Colorado Springs running short owing to the scarcity of rain or snow, and a quietus is to be put on the extravagance of water users by Water Superintendent R. J. Verner, who stated to the Council last night that about 8,500,000 gallons a day are now being used in this city and all the reservoirs with the exception of Lake Moraine, are either entirely dry or practically so. The order regarding the use of water is to be rigidly enforced and two men will be put to work today to get information against violators of the law so that the ordinance may be strictly enforced. A meeting of the water committee will be held this morning to consider the question of limiting the hours during which water may be used for sprinkling and of different hours in different parts of the city so that the demands on the water will not all come at the same time.

Verner Talks.

"For the last two weeks we have been waiting for the usual snow or rain at this time of the year," said Mr. Verner last night, "and in view of the fact that it has not arrived, I think it is time to begin to conserve our water. Since last September we have had no rain worth mentioning and the snow reserve in the hills is less than the average, a great deal of it having been evaporated by the high winds in the last month.

"There is no question that there is a vast amount of water being wasted and while we have no shortage at present I think it is well to be prepared for the worst and now is the time to begin. Seven Lakes reservoir and No. 2 are dry and there is very little water in Nos. 3 and 4, so that all we have left is that in Lake Moraine. The snow has not started to melt to any extent in the hills yet and there will not be much water coming in for several days. I am going to enforce the regulation to the letter and fine all violators against whom we get information."

FEARS ANOTHER PANIC

WASHINGTON BANKER FAVORS ALDRICH BILL.

Speakers Before House Committee on Banking Handle Financial Measure Without Gloves.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The Aldrich financial bill, as passed by the Senate, was handled without gloves today by speakers before the House committee on banking and currency, which is considering the measure. With the exception of Charles C. Glover, president of the Riggs National bank of this city, none of those who spoke today favored the passage at this time of an emergency measure. The sentiment was almost unanimous that if a permanent financial bill cannot become a law now, no attempt should be made to amend the present laws.

The enactment at this session of Congress, of an emergency currency bill was urged by Mr. Glover, but he argued that the legislation should be confined purely to the question of meeting emergencies. He thought the Aldrich bill should be amended to include railroad bonds among the securities that could be accepted as a basis for circulation.

Mr. Glover predicted that if some relief measure was not passed there would be a repetition of the financial stringency that prevailed last fall. He expressed the opinion that the financial condition was not improving.

The speakers who followed Mr. Glover, representing interests in Minneapolis, St. Paul, Boston, New York, Philadelphia and Richmond, Va., took issue with his statement that financial conditions have not improved and said they saw no signs of an impending panic. One of the sections most freely criticised was the LaFollette amendment, providing that no National Banking association shall invest any part of its funds or deposits in the stocks or other securities of any corporation or association, any of the officers or directors of which are officers or directors of such banking association. The claim was that this would drive the most desirable men of a community out of the directorate of a bank.

An asset currency bill was favored by many of the speakers and the appointment of a commission to investigate the whole subject and report to Congress was generally favored.

The hearings will be resumed tomorrow.

VETO HOLDS UP STREAM RIGHTS

PRESIDENT REFUSES TO SIGN AWAY PRIVILEGES.

SAYS CHARGE SHOULD BE MADE

INCOME WOULD AID IN IMPROVING WATERWAYS.

PRESENT POLICY IS UNWISE

Giving Away, without Price, Power Rights in Streams Strenuously Denounced by Roosevelt in a Special Message to Both Houses of Congress.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—In a special message today, vetoing a dam bill, President Roosevelt warned Congress that there are pending in this session bills which propose to give away without price stream rights capable of developing 1,300,000 horse power, whose production will cost annually 25,000,000 tons of coal, urging in vigorous terms the establishment of a policy such as the filibustering minority in the House demands, which would safeguard the granting of bridge and dam privileges and require the grantees to pay for them, and definitely announcing a future policy on his part with regard to prompt utilization of construction privileges by refusing his signature to a bill that gives an additional three years to the Rainy River Improvement company in which to build a dam in the Rainy river.

Express Disapproval.

"I do not believe," says the President, "that natural resources should be granted and held in an undeveloped condition either for speculative or other reasons. So far as I am aware, there are no assurances that the grantees (in this case) are in any better condition promptly and properly to utilize the opportunity than they were at the time of the original act (granting the privilege) ten years ago."

Discussing the federal policy, the President says:

"Every permit to construct a dam on a navigable stream should specifically recognize the right of the government to fix a term for its duration and to impose such charge or charges as may be deemed necessary to protect the present and future interests of the United States in accordance with the act of June 21, 1906.

"The provision for a charge is of vital importance. The navigability of every inland waterway and of all connected or connectable inland waterways as a whole should be improved for the purpose of interstate and foreign commerce upon a consistent and unified plan, by which each part should be made to help every other part. The income derivable from this source would materially aid in the complete improvement of our navigable waters, for which there is now such crying need.

Shouldn't Give Wealth Away.

"The chief of engineers of the army reports that the bills now pending at this session of Congress permit the construction of dams in navigable rivers capable of developing over 1,300,000 horse power. These rivers run every hour in the day and every day in the year. To develop this amount of power would under average conditions require about 25,000,000 tons of medium quality coal every year. This natural wealth is the heritage of the people. I see no reason for giving it away, though there is every reason for not imposing conditions so burdensome as to prevent the utilization of the power.

"We are now at the beginning of a great development in water power. Its use, through electrical transmission, is entering more and more largely into every element of the daily life of the people. Already the evils of monopoly are becoming manifest; already the experience of the past shows the necessity of caution in making unrestricted grants of this great power.

Policy Pursued Is Universal.

"The present policy pursued in making grants is unwise in giving away the property of the people in the flowing waters to individuals or organizations practically unknown and granting in perpetuity these valuable privileges in advance of the formation of definite plans as to their use. In some cases, the grantees apparently have little or no financial or other ability to utilize the gift and have sought it merely because it could be had for the asking.

"In place of the present haphazard policy of permanently alienating valuable public property, we should substitute a definite policy along the following lines:

"First, there should be a limited or carefully guarded grant in the nature of an option or opportunity afforded within a reasonable time for development of plans and for execution of the project.

"Second, such a grant or concession should be accompanied in the act making the grant by a provision expressly making it the duty of the designated official to annul the grant if the work is not begun or plans are not carried out in accordance with the authority granted.

"Third, it should also be the duty of some designated official to see to it that in approving the plans the maximum development of the navigation and power is assured, or at least that in making the plans these may not be so developed as ultimately to interfere with the better utilization of the water or complete development of the power.

"Fourth, there should be a license fee or charge which, though small or nominal at the outset, can in the future be adjusted so as to secure a control in the interests of the public.

"Fifth, provision should be made for the termination of the grant or privilege at a definite time, leaving to future generations the power or authority to renew or extend the concession in accordance with the ends which may prevail at that time."

INFANTRY TO PENSACOLA.

PENSACOLA, Fla., April 13.—With an entire regiment of infantry and two Gatling guns here, an effort is to be made to operate the street cars tomorrow, after a suspension of service of eight days. Additional strikebreakers reached the city late today. There have been no demonstrations or disorders during the day, and no trouble is anticipated during the night.

AID OFFERED CHELSEA

HOMELESS IN FIRE-SWEPT CITY ARE CARED FOR.

Ready Responses Made to Call Issued to State. Thousands of Dollars Already Raised.

BOSTON, April 13.—From the embers of yesterday's conflagration in Chelsea there arose today a well-organized movement for aid and relief to the 10,000 homeless, a counting of the cost by insurance companies, whose representatives place their losses at $3,500,000 and a determination by the city authorities to rebuild the 350 acres swept by the flames, where stood before the fire, property valued at nearly $6,000,000.

No further details were reported today, and of the injured persons taken to the various hospitals, only two were believed to be in a critical condition. The three bodies which were taken to the morgue in Boston last night remained unidentified today.

Revised figures obtained today indicate that the losses were divided, according to the various classes of property destroyed as follows:

Churches and schools, $525,000; public buildings, $475,000; factories, business blocks and contents, $825,000; dwelling houses, $3,750,000. Total, $5,575,000. The insurance of $3,500,000 is divided among about 50 companies.

Comparatively little suffering was reported among the fire victims today, so prompt and efficient was the relief work begun yesterday that practically no one was without shelter during the night. Today the relief work was taken up by those who handled the Massachusetts fund for San Francisco sufferers. Early in the day, Mayor Beck issued an appeal to the country, but after a conference with Acting Governor Draper, the appeal was amended so as to include only the state. Announcement was made that $15,000 had been raised by subscription in Boston before noon. In addition, the city of Chelsea appropriated $10,000 and a resolution calling for $100,000 from the state was introduced in the house of representatives. Many nearby cities announced the starting of subscription papers and special meetings will be held to take action on the matter. A message received from President Roosevelt expressed sympathy and volunteered the services of the army and navy.

In the meantime, the local organiza-

TO PARK AVENUE SOON

COUNCIL WILL GO AHEAD WITH ITS PLANS.

This Matter and Liquor Licenses to Be Considered at Meeting Tomorrow.

No action was taken on the granting of liquor licenses last night by the City Council and this matter, together with that of awarding the contract for the Cascade avenue parking, will be taken up at a meeting to be held tomorrow night. Bids on the parking from Hare & Wallace and from Anderson, Ord & Swope were opened and referred to the city engineer for tabulation. The bids were presented in detailed form and will have to be carefully compared before it can be determined which is the lower. Two other bids were received by the city clerk, but not within the specified time and were accordingly rejected unopened. The contract will be awarded tomorrow night and the work pushed forward as soon as possible.

According to a statement made by City Attorney Price last night, there is very little danger of further litigation on the matter in view of the judgment rendered in the district court and the city's case is so strong that the city attorney has no fear of the outcome in any event.

Sidewalk Bids Open.

Bids for the laying of delinquent sidewalks on Cascade avenue were also opened and referred to the city engineer for tabulation. The bids were from the Guarantee Paving company, 12 cents a square foot; C. W. Peterson, 9 cents, eliminating the hauling away of any dirt, and Hare and Wallace 10 cents. Other sidewalks have been advertised, but were not mentioned in the bids.

Alderman Kasson reported in response to a query from President Fertig, that the arrangements for the opening of Platte avenue are being delayed through a question of ownership of a small strip of ground between Platte and the old Boulder road. The matter rests between the Colorado Springs company and the Hoome estate.

Sidewalks were ordered laid on Wahsatch avenue from Costilla to Uintah.

MUCH PROGRESS MADE BY HOUSE

NAVAL APPROPRIATION BILL HALF DISPOSED OF.

DISCUSSION QUITE ANIMATED

FORTIFICATION OF SUBIG AND MANILA BAYS POPS UP.

OFFICERS' HOPES DESTROYED

Possibility of Increase in Pay Disappears, the Provision for Such Being Stricken From the Bill on Point of Order—Routine Business in Senate.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Unlooked for progress was made by the House today in the consideration of the naval appropriation bill. When it was laid aside for the day it had been half disposed of, and the advocates of the four battleships proposition were aligning themselves in preparation for the fight on that subject, which probably will occur tomorrow.

The hopes of the officers of the navy and marine corps for an increase in pay were dashed to the ground when, on a point of order by Mr. Madden of Illinois, there was stricken from the bill the provision for such increase. On a similar point by Mr. Mudd of Maryland, an amendment by Mr. Bartholdt of Missouri prohibiting naval or marine bands accepting private employment in competition with civilian musicians was lost.

Hobson Offers Amendment.

General debate having been concluded Saturday the reading of the measure for amendment was begun. No sooner was this done than Mr. Hobson (Alabama) offered an amendment appropriating $190,000 for promoting the cause of international arbitration, the sum to be expended by the executive committee of the American group of the interparliamentary union. Mr. Hobson and Mr. Bartholdt (Missouri) spoke in support of the amendment, but on a point of order by Mr. Foss (Illinois), it was ruled out as not being germane to the bill.

The House voted down an amendment by Mr. Hitchcock (Nebraska), limiting to [illegible] the price at which powder shall be sold to the government. The present price is 67 cents and it was disclosed that the government produced it for 47 cents.

Could Make Own Powder.

Mr. Foss declared that because of the fact that the government now manufactured one-third of the powder used by it, it practically controlled the situation and was in a position where by appropriation the plants could be increased and the government make all the powder needed by it. When the provision relating to the naval station at Olongapo, Philippine Islands, was reached, the old controversy over the fortification of Subig and Manila bays cropped out. Mr. Hobson declared that anyone who would choose between the two would choose Manila bay.

The whole question, he said, was simply one of defense. "We can not hold Subig bay ten days," he said; "we can hold Manila bay ninety days."

Must Control the Sea.

The only way to hold the islands at all, he asserted, was to control the sea. At present the United States had only temporary control. He contended that an army from Asia could land and take Subig bay from the rear without any resistance and then proceed and capture Manila city and Manila bay.

"But," he said, "the lines would be drawn in, and the army estimates it could hold out thirty days."

Pressed by Mr. Jones of Virginia to state if he had such information officially, Mr. Hobson replied that he had not been authorized to disclose the source of his information.

In favoring the fortification of Cavite as against Subig bay Mr. Sherley of Kentucky said he would abide by the decision of the joint army and navy board, whose recommendations was favorable to Cavite. He was not, he said, so sure of the fear of disaster either to the United States or any of its possessions as to believe there was any necessity for making Subig bay a naval base.

Mr. Foss vigorously supported the appropriation for Subig bay and quoted Rear Admiral Dewey and other high naval officers as declaring that Subig bay was the only place where a naval station and land defenses should or could be established in the Philippine Islands.

Routine Business.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—The brief session of the Senate today was devoted to the transaction of routine business and the delivery of a speech by Senator Scott of West Virginia, chairman of the committee on buildings and grounds. Mr. Scott appealed to the Senate to make adequate [illegible] public buildings in this city so that official business might be transacted with the greatest efficiency and economy. At 1:30 p. m. the Senate adjourned.

UNIQUE FOLK SONG RECITAL

Mme. Olga Burgtorf Sings in Many Tongues in Perkins Hall Concert.

An unusual recital was given last night by Mme. Olga Burgtorf, in the form of a program of folk songs of the various nations and tribes in costume, given in Perkins hall under the auspices of the Colorado Springs Musical club. When compared with the other artist concerts given here this winter, the entertainment must be classed by itself, on account of its oddity and uniqueness.

Mme. Burgtorf devoted the first part of her program to a general discussion of the folk song, its origin and its use in the different tribes and nations. She illustrated the folk songs of each nation by a number of songs in its native language. This alone is quite a feat, for during the course of the evening, she sang in at least two dozen different tongues, most of them being the language of uncivilized nations.

In her general discussion Mme. Burgtorf took up the American Indian, Mexican Indian, Australian cannibal war song, Australian cannibal evening song, Hawaiian, Persian lullaby, Japanese song, Chinese song and various wandering barbarian tribes. Accompaniments have been arranged to some of these and as near as possible represent the native accompaniment. The most striking of all was the Chinese, "The Lady Picking Mulberries," which Edgar Stillwell-Kelley has arranged from Chinese airs. Mme. Burgtorf sang it first in Chinese and then, by popular request, in English. The Cannibal evening song, the Persian lullaby, which has eight tones, which are the eighth part of one of our whole tones, were perhaps the prettiest out of the various airs of the different tribes.

The second part of the program was not so interesting as the first. It was made up of so-called folk songs, but many of them were not the true lied, but rather the popular ballads of the countries represented. The most telling numbers in the part were the Russian, "Nachtigal," (Nightingale), which Liszt has transcribed for the piano, the German "Unterin Machandlebaum," which suited Burgtorf's personality better than anything else she sang, and "La Premiere Feuille," a French song of the first sign of spring, the new leaf. The latter was one of the most satisfying things of the entire program. The Viennese street song, which she sang, sounded not a little like many American musical comedy numbers. Grieg's arrangement of "She Is So White," and Loomis' arrangement of "My Mammie's Voice" were given for the Swedish and the darky songs respectively. She also gave Tosti's "Serenata" for the Italian, and Dvorak's "Songs My Mother Taught Me" for the Bohemian, both of which were well done. She ended her program with a Swiss song.

Mme. Burgtorf wore two costumes; the first, that of a Persian lady of high rank; and the second, that of a German girl.

As the songs, rather than the singer are the attraction, comment on her voice and method is unnecessary. The hall was not a third full. Much of the quality of her voice was lost on account of the great empty spaces. Some of Burgtorf's tones are truly beautiful, rich and full of tonal color.

Mrs. J. Dawson Hawkins played the accompaniments. The difficulties that she had to overcome may be realized when it is said that in one of the folk songs, the American Indian, she had a 4-4 time in the bass and a 6-8 time in the treble. Her playing of the accompaniments to "The Lady Picking Mulberries" and to "La Premiere Feuille" was beautiful and her tone coloring excellent.

vision will be a tonic and not punitive; that it will be a work of economic reorganization and not one of reprisal.

The party will be intrusted with this work if it can convince the people that the tariff will be revised with a just consideration of all interests involved and with a temperate progression that will permit a proper readjustment of business to the new conditions that shall be enacted.

In our opinion, the surest way to convince the people of this fact will be by the nomination of a man in whose conservatism and in whose integrity of purpose and in whose incorruptibility the voters will have faith. It is our belief that no man in the party possesses these various attributes to so eminent a degree as Mr. Bryan.

The league calls your attention to the fact that nearly all of the policies recently advocated by Mr. Roosevelt and which increased his popularity with the common people were policies first enunciated and clearly written into the Democratic platforms by Mr. Bryan himself.

The league calls your attention to the fact that the proposed enlargement of the powers of the interstate commerce commission has been a plank in the last three Democratic national platforms, while those of the Republican party during the same campaigns have been silent upon the same subject.

We call your attention to the fact that Mr. Bryan's vote in the state of New York in 1900 was 25,000 greater than the state's vote for Grover Cleveland in his last election.

We call your attention to the fact that in the popular vote in that year of 1900, Mr. Bryan, whom the country had come to know, reduced McKinley's majority of the preceding election in the state of New York 1,.000.

We call your attention to the further fact that when the party at St. Louis in 1904 chose Judge Parker as its standard bearer, Judge Parker's opponent, Mr. Roosevelt, increased McKinley's popular vote of the entire country by more than 400,000 votes, while Parker's popular vote fell behind that of Mr. Bryan 1,.00,000.

We respectfully submit that the future of the party lies in its advance and not in marking time or in retreat.

We submit that since the election of 1904 Mr. Bryan has constantly gained in personal popularity; that he makes an especial appeal to the enthusiasm of the new and youthful voters whose ideals are high, and also while not disparaging the claim of the favorite son of any locality, that he more than any other man whose name is before the people, can unite all elements of the party in a courageous and a militant campaign.

A New Preparation.

Chamberlain's Liniment is a new preparation and a good one. It is especially valuable as a cure for chronic and muscular rheumatism, and for the relief from pain which it affords in acute inflammatory rheumatism. Those who have used it have invariably spoken of it in the highest terms of praise. Lame back, lame shoulder and stiff neck are due to rheumatism of the muscles, usually brought on by exposure to cold or damp, and are quickly cured by applying this liniment freely and massaging the affected parts. Soreness of the muscles, whether induced by violent exercise or injury, is allayed by this liniment. For sale by all druggists.

tions, such as the Associated Charities and the Salvation Army were perfecting their work and they professed entire ability to find temporary quarters for all the homeless.

The burned district was closely patrolled by the state militia. The work of the guard, however, consisted mostly in keeping people from venturing too near the standing walls. There was very little property remaining to be guarded, so thoroughly had the area been swept by the flames. In fact, the underwriters who viewed the ruins today saw no prospect of salvage of any description. One street, Broadway, was cleared and opened to the general public and as it led straight through the heart of the ruins a steady stream of people moved through it all day.

TIGERS MEET ROCK ISLANDS

College Men Will Go Against Fast Local Ball Tossers on Washburn Field.

The fast Rock Island amateur baseball team which has yet to meet its conqueror among the local nines will go up against the Colorado College Tigers on Washburn field this afternoon. The game will begin on Washburn field at 4 o'clock and will be full of action and interest. In spite of their two strenuous games last week, the Tigers took a long workout with Cutler Academy last night, and are expecting a hard game this afternoon.

Following is the line-up:

Colorado College		Rock Islands
Van Stone	p	Hastings
Deesz	c	Shields
Devine	1b	Fowler
Jones	2b	Patterson
Schimid	3b	Counts

PLUMBERS MAKE HOT FINISH

Defeat Business Men in Seventh Inning, 8 to 7—Chauffeurs, 20; Barbers, 1.

In a game that was not decided until the last half of the last inning, the plumbers nosed out an 8 to 7 victory over the business men in class B of the city indoor baseball league. The plumbers scored with clocklike regularity until the last inning when they had to get two to overcome the seventh-inning finish made by their opponents. St. John struck out 11 men and Dubach five. The line-up:

Plumbers		Business Men
St. John	p	Dubach
Haas	c	Rigle
Bailey	1b	Hiller
Lodge	2b	Skinner
Brown	3b	Hill
Jardine	ss	Bissell
Williams	lss	Anderson

Score by innings: R. H. E.
Plumbers ..... 1 1 1 1 1 1 2—8 7 1
Business Men ..... 0 0 0 0 0 1 4—7 11 5

Umpires—J. and H. Steninger; scorer Erps.

The Chauffeurs gave the Barbers a merry spin. Starting off with 11 scores in the first inning, they wound up by a 20 to 1 victory. They got 20 hits and the barbers made 11 errors. The work of Pitcher Hogg, who fanned 17 men, was the main feature of the game. The line-up:

Chauffeurs		Barbers
Hogg	p	Hyatt
Borworth	c	Haaka
Goudy	1b	Majors
Young	2b	Pritchard

CENTENNIAL DISBANDS

PUEBLO H. S. WITHDRAWS FROM BASEBALL RACE.

Deficiency in Studies Causes Cancelling of Games With Cutler Academy and Terrors.

Pueblo Centennial High School has disbanded its baseball team and cancelled all its championship games with Colorado Springs High School and Cutler Academy. Word to this effect was received last night by Manager Donald S. Tucker of the High School Terrors.

Deficiency in studies is the reason assigned for this action. All but five of the men on the Centennial baseball team were below passing grade in their studies and the faculty refused to certify their eligibility. This compelled the men to disband the team, it being felt that any attempt to reorganize the nine from other material in school would be futile.

Both of the local schools had two championship games scheduled with the Pueblo team, the Terrors being slated to open the season in the Smoky City on Saturday of this week. As there were the only two schools and Centennial in the southern division of the interscholastic league, the withdrawal of the Pueblans leaves the Terrors and the Academy to fight it out for the honor of meeting the victor in the two northern divisions for the state championship in June.

While the league will remain intact no other school will be taken in to fill the vacancy made by Pueblo's withdrawal. Efforts will be made to fill the dates in the schedule with practice games with the Denver or other state teams.

WASHINGTON, April 13.—Conferees on the widows' pension bill reached an agreement today by adopting the bill practically in the form passed by the House. It increases from $8 to $12 per month the pensions of widows of soldiers of the Mexican, Indian and Civil wars, and will increase the pension list about $12,000,000.

WHAT JOY THEY BRING TO EVERY HOME,

as with joyous hearts and smiling faces they romp and play when in health and how conducive to health the games in which they indulge, the outdoor life they enjoy, the cleanly, regular habits they should be taught to form and the wholesome diet of which they should partake. How tenderly their health should be preserved, not by constant medication, but by careful avoidance of every medicine of an injurious or objectionable nature, and if at any time a remedial agent is required, to assist nature, only those of known excellence should be used; remedies which are pure and wholesome and truly beneficial in effect, like the pleasant laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna has come into general favor in many millions of well informed families, whose estimate of its quality and excellence is based upon personal knowledge and use.

Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna has also met with the approval of physicians generally, because they know it is wholesome, simple and gentle in its action. We inform all reputable physicians as to the medicinal principles of Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna, obtained by an original method, from certain plants known to them to act most beneficially, and presented in an agreeable syrup in which the wholesome Californian blue figs are used to promote the pleasant taste; therefore it is not a secret remedy, and hence we are free to refer to all well informed physicians, who do not approve of patent medicines and never favor indiscriminate self-medication.

Please to remember and teach your children also that the genuine Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna always has the full name of the Company California Fig Syrup Co. plainly printed on the front of every package and that it is for sale in bottles of one size only. If any dealer offers any other than the regular Fifty cent size, or having printed thereon the name of any other company, do not accept it. If you fail to get the genuine you will not get its beneficial effects. Every family should always have a bottle on hand, as it is equally beneficial for the parents and the children, whenever a laxative remedy is required.

NEWS OF THE LOCAL COURTS

A motion for a new trial was filed in district court yesterday on behalf of the Western Electrical company, plaintiffs in a money demand suit against Charles D. Pickett, N. B. Haines et al, of Colorado City. A recent judgment was rendered forcing the plaintiff to pay the costs of the case.

The suit brought by Ray F. Love against the Golden Cycle Mining company for $10,000 damages for injuries alleged to have been received in the Golden Cycle mill, has been transferred to the federal court in Denver owing to the fact that the defendant company is incorporated in an eastern state. A bond for $500 has been furnished by the defendant as a guarantee of appearance.

Richard Stewart, who has completed a sentence of 60 days in the county jail for disturbance, was released yesterday.

James H. Dilenback, whose wife obtained a divorce in the district court last December and who has been in jail on a writ of ne exeat, was released by order of the court yesterday as the difficulty concerning the alimony and the support of the minor child has been amicably settled.

In the case of G. B. Merrick vs. the Fountain Suburban Homes company, the motion of the defendant to have the complaint made more specific was granted and the plaintiff given 10 days in which to move or file an amended complaint.

The demurrer of the city of Colorado Springs in the suit brought by E. G. Corey in the district court has been overruled.

A suit for divorce was brought in the county court yesterday by Mildred Earp against T. J. Earp on the charge of nonsupport and desertion. The couple were married in Pueblo in December, 1906, and a month later, the wife alleges, she was deserted by her husband.

The machinery of the Hewitt Brick and Tile company located near Mount Washington, east of this city, was sold yesterday by Undersheriff George Dayton under a writ of execution. The property brought $1280.75, and was bought by the Citizens Exchange bank of Sugar City in whose favor the writ was issued.

Seven young men were fined $5 and costs each in the police court yesterday for riding their bicycles on the sidewalk. Two more arrests were made yesterday by plain clothes men working in the north end.

John J. Brown, a cook at the Harvey eating house at the Santa Fe depot, was arrested yesterday on the charge of forgery brought by Earl Tucker, who alleges in his complaint that Brown forged a note on October 29 last, for $100. The arrest was made by Constable Larrabee on a warrant sworn to in the court of Justice Ruby.

No trace of the alleged counterfeiters, who operated in Colorado Springs Sunday night and victimized two rooming house proprietors, has been found. It has been learned that the bills passed and for which change was secured were not counterfeit, but merely Confederate money and the only charge that can be brought against the men is that of obtaining money under false pretenses.

TIME TO ACT

Don't Wait for the Fatal Stages of Kidney Illness—Profit by Colorado Springs People's Experiences.

Occasional attacks of backache, irregular urination, headaches and dizzy spells are common early symptoms of kidney disorders. It's an error to neglect these ills. The attacks may pass off for a time, but return with greater intensity. If there are symptoms of dropsy—puffy swellings below the eyes, bloating of limbs and ankles or any part of the body, don't delay a minute. Begin taking Doan's Kidney Pills, and keep up the treatment until the kidneys are well, when your old-time health and vigor will return. Cures in Colorado Springs prove the effectiveness of this great kidney remedy.

Mrs. Laura Ellsworth, 1314 Lincoln Ave., Colorado Springs, Colo., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are undoubtedly the best kidney medicine I ever used. The kidney trouble in my case was one of long standing. I suffered greatly from pains through my back and loins and an inflammation of the bladder. The kidney secretions were very scanty at times, while at others they would be much too frequent, causing me great annoyance. My daughter procured a box of Doan's Kidney Pills for me at the D. Y. Butcher Drug Co. and from the wonderful relief received from their use, I feel that I can well recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others suffering from similar troubles."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

THE DEMOCRATIC PROBLEM.

MR. BRYAN, who recently paid an eloquent tribute to the noble donkey as the emblem of the Democratic party, will be shocked and grieved to learn that the ambitious local managers of the Denver convention would depose the long-eared beast and elevate the tiger in its stead. A papier mache figure of the king of the jungle, life-size, is to be placed at the corner of Sixteenth and Broadway, there to remain throughout the convention, unless an untimely rain bedraggles it. Then, no doubt, it will be stowed away until the day after election, when it will be a more fitting emblem of the Democracy in its normal condition. According to the Associated Press dispatch, "this emblem has been selected instead of the prosaic donkey, as the striped king of the jungle lends himself more readily to the plan of decoration."

Well, what if he does? Mere decorative utility is a small and insignificant thing compared with the long-established traditions that clinch the donkey's title as the Democratic symbol. The humble beast with the long ears has held its place in the affections of the Democratic party for so long that nobody remembers when it was chosen. Its claim is based on something more important than good looks and decorative adaptability. It typifies hard luck, patient resignation to outrageous fortune, slow, plodding effort, and—since Bryan got in the saddle—uncomplaining submissiveness under a hard and heavy burden. The cartoonists could search a long time and not find a beast or bird more appropriate. The Democratic donkey fits in its niche as perfectly as the American eagle, or the British lion, or the Russian bear, in theirs.

The tiger is and always has been the emblem of Tammany—cruel, merciless, ravenous, and here again the eternal fitness of things is observed. But Tammany is only a small part of the Democratic party—its horizon is bounded by the confines of New York City—and therefore the use of the tiger as the emblem of the Democratic party elsewhere is entirely inappropriate. So far as we know, it has never been used in this manner except by the cartoonists of the Denver papers, and—quite recently—by the celebrated Democratic Club, of this city, which has a ferocious-looking tiger painted on the wall of the hall leading to its rooms, sandwiched in between placards requesting members to "Please Use the Cuspidors," and "Please Do Not Spit on the Floor."

Mr. Bryan recently defended the donkey as the emblem of his party, though his reasons, as we recall them, were not exactly the same as those given above. Anyway, he was right about it. Equus asinus has held his job in the Democratic camp too long to be routed out now by any meddlesome arrangements committee in Denver, or anywhere else.

THE LAND OF POSSIBILITIES.

JOHN BARRETT, who has been United States Minister to two or three Central American countries and who at present is director-general of the International Bureau of American Republics, probably knows as much about Latin America as anybody else in this country. He is an indefatigable advocate of closer trade relations with these countries for the benefit of the exporters of the United States, and his occasional magazine contributions on various phases of the subject are always interesting. In the current number of The World To-day he writes on "Latin America, a Great Commercial Opportunity," and the article is worth reading, whether you are interested in foreign commerce or not.

The term Latin America applies to all of South and Central America, the West Indies and Mexico—the immense region where the people speak the Latin tongue. Mr. Barrett reminds the reader who has forgotten his school geography and hasn't time to consult an atlas that the United States is not the only big country in the Western Hemisphere. Brazil is as big as the United States and Germany combined. Bolivia is about three times as big as Germany, or, stated another way, it is twice as big as Texas with Arkansas and Kansas thrown in for good measure. Chile is so long that if it could be laid down on our Pacific coast it would stretch from San Diego to the middle of Alaska. It looks narrow on the map, but its width averages about the same as that of California. The area of Peru is equal to that of all the Atlantic coast states from Maine to Georgia.

GROWING FOREIGN COMMERCE. But mere territorial extent counts for little, however interesting these comparisons may be. The important part of Mr. Barrett's article concerns the trade possibilities of these countries. Many of them are already rich and populous and all of them are growing rapidly. For instance, Buenos Ayres, the capital of Argentina, has more than a million people, and is the biggest city in the Western Hemisphere outside of the United States. Last year South American trade amounted to $651,000,000, of which only $61,000,000 worth was bought from the United States. In the same year South America sold to us [illegible] $149,000,000, so the balance of trade against us was about $62,000,000. These figures show what a tremendously rich market has been neglected in South America alone by American manufacturers.

Secretary Root's visit to South America and the stops of the battleship fleet at Rio and other ports in that part of the world have done much to create a more friendly feeling, but American commerce is not likely to be substantially benefited until our exporters learn to hustle for the business as the English and Germans do. Our consuls in Latin America complain that American manufacturers send out trade representatives who are unable to speak Spanish, and distribute catalogues printed only in English. This sounds incredible, but it is a fact. Imagine how much business a French concern could do in this country if it sent here salesmen unable to speak English! Another important reason why Americans fail to get the South American business is the lack of direct steamship connections. Mail from New York to Rio or Buenos Ayres goes via Liverpool or Cherbourg, and the passenger who wants to get there quickly goes by the same route. These antiquated methods will be displaced before long though, for the importance of the South American market is being recognized now as it never has been before.

The Chicago Tribune thinks that if Mr. Bryan had had time to make a few more speeches in the Windy City, several more aldermanic Democrats would have been retired to private life. 'Twas ever thus. Four years ago Parker lost most heavily in the places where Bryan had expounded pure Democracy; and eight years ago the Nebraskan's eloquence showed the smallest results at the polls in the places where he had spoken. People go to hear Bryan to be amused and entertained, not to be convinced.

Pity the woes of the poor fire insurance man! The Baltimore blaze hit him a hard rap, then came San Francisco with its heaviest loss ever known, and now a ten-million-dollar blaze in Chelsea, Mass., caps the climax. If this thing keeps up the fire insurance men will be sorry that they didn't go into the life business in the good old days before Charles E. Hughes and the Armstrong committee spoiled the graft.

The offices of the New York Life Insurance Company, in New York, were closed the other day and the whole place fumigated. No, not a legislative investigation: merely an epidemic of tonsilitis among the clerks.

PROHIBIT DRUNKENNESS, NOT DRINK.

From Army and Navy Life.

The facts are indisputable that since the abolition of the canteen army reservations have been surrounded by the lowest drinking dives, wherein is dispensed the vilest of distilled drinks; and that drunkenness in the army, trials by court-martial for offenses resulting from intoxication, and hospital admissions for alcoholism have increased rather than decreased. The more you prohibit, the more machine-like you make men, and the less the resistance to the temptation to have that which is denied. The more you leave things to a man's sense of honor, the more you upbuild his capacity and determination to demonstrate his manhood. Liberty of that kind and degree existing before the abolition of the canteen is man's right. There are instruments for the punishment of all those who overstep the limits.

MUCK-RAKING NOT NEW.

From the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

Some day the muck-raker will be justly written up. He was, in fact, a most modest person, bespectacled, of studious mien and deliberate habit, thinking only, methodically, of his humble daily task. Plying his garden implement, in umbrageous and homely industry, he suddenly found himself surrounded by a raging band who delivered the astounding charge that he was digging up the foundations of society. Ever since he has been pondering the experience in round-eyed and dumb amazement.

To depreciate the power of the press does not exactly lie in the way of our trade. But no writing did it; nor yet did Roosevelt do it. There was nothing new. Every oppressive practice of the oil trust was fully stated a dozen or more years ago by Henry D. Lloyd. Corruption and extravagance in life insurance were all brought out in the Beers case. Rotten city politics was a commonplace to everybody. Railroad rebates were as much within common knowledge as the change of the seasons. Harriman's manipulation of Union Pacific was a quite conservative piece of business compared with McLeod's well-known manipulation of Reading. The spirit of the nation was ready this time. It would have flamed out against the sins of business and politics, anyway.

RAYMOND HITCHCOCK'S ACQUITTAL.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

The announcement, in your columns, of Raymond Hitchcock's acquittal, was as natural as bound to appear as the flowers in spring. It was a heinous blackmailing plot, conceived and launched by two spotless, reproachless, immaculate scions of New York city's elite. The judge passed the verdict of "not guilty" sancta simplicitas! Alas! the court room—that gilded masquerader of justice—those four walls of hypocrisy, shame and deceit, can they leave you in their merciless embrace, who can remove their smirch? "Not guilty!" A hollow phrase to him of the sleepless nights.

—Yes, my brother-in-law is innocent. They tackled the wrong ones, but where is the equilibrium of our worshiped justice, when a man's offense is paraded before the world till, verily, his accusation becomes a condemnation? A. PARKER-MANGASARIAN.

Colorado Springs, April 13.

BRYAN'S LECTURE.

To the Editor of The Gazette:

In Saturday morning's Gazette, in the Open Parliament, you published a very severe criticism of Mr. Bryan and his lecture by a man signed with the letter P. As he had not the moral courage to sign his full name to tell the people who he really is, we assume the letter P stands for Philistine, as he seems to worship the Dragon of Evolution. In said article he asks the intelligent readers of The Gazette for their opinion of Mr. Bryan and his sermon, "The Prince of Peace." As I personally attended said meeting in the Temple theater and was close enough to understand every word Mr. Bryan said, the lecture of Mr. Bryan made quite a different impression on my mind; in fact I can't understand how a man with a spark of common sense could find fault with Mr. Bryan's sermon. It was a masterpiece of theological discourse, logical, sound and scriptural and sparkled with wholesome advice for the young and old.

It seems Mr. P. was horror-stricken with the aspect that if Mr. Bryan became President of the United States he would be forced to join the Y. M. C. A. or some church organization. Now, I wish to assure him that his fear is without reason and groundless. Mr. Bryan is intelligent enough that he never dreamed of such a thing. What could the Y. M. C. A. or any branch of the Christian church do with such a big head as Mr. P. seems to be? They would have no earthly use at all for such a man, as the fundamental condition of real usefulness in the church is childlike faith in the Scriptures and in the Lord Jesus Christ. Mr. P. believes that Mr. Bryan imbibed his religious fervor when he was traveling in Russia and the orient. If that is the case it would be advisable for Mr. P. to go there, too, and stay there for his lifetime, for a change of mind will be rather a slow process for a man of his capability. He calls Mr. Bryan a political clown without giving the slightest proof for his assertion. Mr. Bryan did not speak of politics at all, neither his personal appearance nor any of his words was clownish, but to the contrary commanded the closest attention and deference of the audience and made the impression that this much-abused gentleman is a man of which the American people may be proud.

I am no Democrat, never saw or heard Mr. Bryan before this, but I would consider it a sign of God's love to our nation if he would be elected for President of the United States. If the religious convictions of a man is a serious objection against a presidential candidate what in the world is Mr. P. going to do with our most honored past Presidents—Lincoln, Grant, Garfield and McKinley? Every one of them was a Christian at heart—and their religion did not disqualify them as rulers of this nation, but to the contrary, the fear of God and a strong faith in God was and will always be an essential feature in the character and moral makeup of our rulers for a successful administration of public affairs.

THE MAN AND HIS JOB

By Herbert J. Hapgood

Don't ask for a position as though you were begging in behalf of a church fair. When offering your services to an employer, remember that you are worth as much to him as he is to you. Prove to him that the salary he pays you is a safe investment which will yield liberal dividends.

A young man came into my office the other day and before I really knew what he wanted I had listened to a most pitiful tale about a crippled father, a sickly mother, and seven younger sisters, all of whom, at that very moment, were home crying for bread. That young man would make an excellent beggar, but an exceptionally weak candidate for a position.

I like to see a man ask for a position as though he had something to sell. In fact he is selling something—he is marketing his ability. Let him have faith in his goods. He knows what he can do, and in modest self-confidence he should show a good line of samples to the employer.

In applying for a position use the tactics of every successful salesman. Be tactful and enthusiastic, and above all things don't misrepresent your goods.

OLD MAIDS WHO WANT MEN.

From the Wallowa (Ore.) Sun.

The Old Maids of the city met in regular session Jan. 5, 1908, at the home of Sister Maud Davis.

After a lengthy discussion on the subject of matrimony a "ways and means" committee was appointed, consisting of the following ladies, Miss Maud Davis, Miss Anna Shell, Miss Dora Wolfe. The following resolution was read and unanimously adopted:

Be It Resolved,—That we as a body do pledge ourselves to assist each other, by fair or foul means, in the capture of "any man" worthy or unworthy of a member of this society.

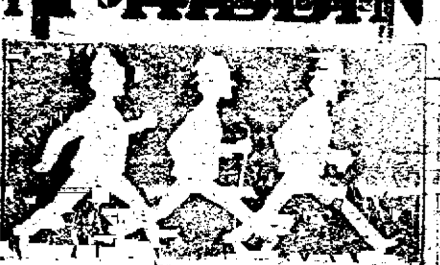

Be It Further Resolved,—That no matter how we mourn the policy we are forced to adopt, that no secrecy nor deception mar the good intentions of the society; we therefore ask that copy of this resolution be framed and hung in the regular meeting place, and further that a copy be sent to the Wallowa Sun for publication.

OFFICERS AND MEMBERS PRESENT.

Sister Margaret Boner, President Maud Davis, Vice-Pres. Goldie McElroy, Sec; Dora Wolfe, Treas, Anna Maxwell, Evea Applegate, Eva Applegate, Nellie Davis, Rena McCullough, Mabel Yulley, Lena Wiley, Gladys Wiley, Anna Shell, Olive Johnson, Mary Miller, Lena Goebel, Jessie Drake.

After singing "A Prosperous Leap Year," they adjourned.

The Graceful Lines

Our cutter is evolving in this season's products are both pleasing and popular.

Current styles call for a long, narrow, graceful lapel effect, which, as ordinarily executed, gives to otherwise fashionable garments a skimpy, unsightly appearance. The N. & H. idea is to give to these graceful lines a peculiarly elegant sweep which imparts not only a stylish but a highly pleasing effect—found only in N. & H. tailored garments.

Let us show you how we incorporate grace into a suit of clothes or overcoat at $20 to $50.

FOUNTAIN VALLEY BOOMING

Big Irrigation System Has Attracted Many New Settlers—Large Reservoir Completed.

Water for irrigating 1,000 acres of land lying north of Fountain in the Fountain valley will be available within the next 30 days and within the next three months there will be a season's supply stored in the immense reservoir of the Fountain Valley Land and Irrigation company between Fountain and Colorado Springs.

The first water was turned into the big reservoir on Tuesday and is estimated that it will require three months to fill it, although the water will be available for crops before that time. The reservoir is one of the largest in this region and, when filled, will make a lake a mile and one-half long and one mile wide, having a maximum depth of 75 feet. The dam is 3,200 feet long, 75 feet high, and 380 feet wide at its base.

Much of the land that will use the water is owned by the Fountain Suburban Homes corporation, which owns several thousand acres in that section. It is being sold in small tracts to truck farmers. During the winter the section of the valley to be benefited by the new irrigation system has been rapidly settled up with homeseekers from Kansas, Nebraska and Missouri.

The principal crops this year will be sugar beets, garden truck and fruits. The big reservoir will provide ample water supply for all of the land that will be placed under cultivation this season. Other smaller reservoirs are in course of construction and by next year there will be three large bodies of water for irrigation purposes.

ZOO WILL OPEN ON MAY 7

Many New Attractions Will Be Seen at Popular Resort This Season.

The Zoo will open on May 7.

This is the date that has been decided upon for the inauguration of another season of amusement and entertainment at the popular resort. When the gates are thrown open it will be to admit the hundreds of Colorado Springs pleasure seekers to a new wonderland. For several weeks a force of men has been engaged within the grounds preparing the Zoo for another season. New features have been added, old ones remodeled, new buildings erected and new attractions installed.

Alderman J. J. Coughlin has introduced the best of the latest new features in the east, including the "The Feeler." "The Lion and the Bride" and the mysterious "Heta," not to mention numerous others. An alligator "farm" will be one of the new features of interest, while a group of sea lions is to be brought here from the Pacific ocean.

The dancing pavilion is to be turned into a large roller skating rink, with free instruction and free skates for beginners every forenoon. For the benefit of tourists a carriage drive, with the entrance at the northwest corner, is being planned. Ladies and children will be admitted free every afternoon except holidays and Sundays.

TO BE MARRIED—Miss Edna Stoddard left Colorado Springs last night for Pasadena, Cal., where on Thursday of this week she is to be married to George Edward Taft, a mining man formerly of this city. The ceremony will be performed at his home and the young couple will make their future home in Los Angeles. Miss Stoddard is the daughter of Mrs. T. E. Stoddard of 329 South Tejon street.

ELKS TO GIVE FIESTA

TIME IS MAY 11 TO 16, AND PLACE, TEMPLE THEATER.

Proceeds to Be Used to Boost Colorado Springs at Dallas, Texas, Next July.

Greater, grander and more magnificent than anything of the kind ever seen under a roof in this city.

No, it is not a circus, but the big fiesta that will soon be pulled off by Lodge No. 309, B. P. O. Elks. It will be a once-in-a-lifetime show. Anyone who doesn't believe this is referred to Mark Rafiry, chairman of the committee in charge.

The time is May 11 to 16, and the place is the Temple theater.

Final arrangements for the list of exhibits, the program and all that will go toward making the fiesta the best ever, have not been completed, but will be at a meeting of all the committees to be held at the Elks' club tomorrow evening.

From the hits that have been dropped it is thought that the fiesta will be no has-beens or neverwasses street show, summer park, zoo, grand opera and skating rink, with "23" side shows. Every feature will be a stellar variety and brandnew. There will be no has-beens or neverwasses. The city has been scoured to secure the aggregation of talent that will be seen.

The fiesta is designed primarily to raise money with which to make a noise in Dallas next July, when the grand lodge meets. But the Elks promise value received in return for every dime taken in at the door and, with their past record in view, the public is anxiously awaiting May 11.

FIRE BELL TO TELL TIME.

Will Ring at Noon and 6 o'Clock in the Evening.

Manitou is to have a new reminder of the noon and evening hours. Beginning on Saturday of this week, by order of the town board, the new fire bell is to ring every day at exactly noon and 6 o'clock in the evening. The bell is to be rung by the telephone operator, by whom the new system of fire alarms is also sounded. The installation of the Gamewell system has been completed.

The new tower over the city hall, forty feet in height, has just been completed, and adds materially to the appearance of the building.

GLOCKNER BUYS GROUND.

Acquires Strip of Land for Tents at Cost of $6,000.

The Glockner sanitarium and hospital has just completed the acquisition of a strip of land north of the present grounds for the location of its tents. The land ... north side of Monroe street, running the entire length of the block, between Cascade avenue and Tejon street, 100 feet deep. The four lots adjoining Cascade avenue were purchased from J. A. Hayes and the remainder from the North End Land company, the consideration was $6,000.

All of the tents and cottages at the sanitarium, numbering about thirty, are to be placed on this strip, leaving the present grounds free for lawns and parking. It had been planned to begin the work of removing the tents early this spring but the delay in the finishing of the new addition has caused a postponement of about two months.

Good Cough Medicine for Children and Grown Folks, Too.

"We could hardly do without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy," says Mrs. Flora Despain of Lloyd, Ky. "I found it to be so good for the croup and have used it for years. I can heartily recommend it for coughs, colds and croup in children and grown folks, too." The above shows the implicit confidence that many mothers place in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, a confidence based on many years' experience in the use of it. No one need hesitate to use this remedy, for it contains no chloroform, opium or other narcotics, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. For sale by all druggists.

ANNUAL CONFERENCE HERE

American Sunday School Union to Meet in Springs.

The annual conference of the missionaries of the southwestern district of the American Sunday School union, lasting for a week, will be held in Colorado Springs in October. Some 50 representatives from nine states will attend, among whom will be a number of national officers and eastern representatives. Announcement of the coming conference was made at the meeting of the Ministerial association yesterday morning, when Dr. James B. Gregg was appointed to deliver the address of welcome on behalf of the association. The Rev. T. H. Foreman, pastor of the United Brethren church, addressed the meeting on "Restitution in All Things."

MRS. HERTEL PASSES AWAY

Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow From Residence.

The funeral of Mrs. Artemesa E. Hertel, who died yesterday morning at 5 o'clock at her home, 235 North El Paso street, will be held tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence. Friends are invited to attend the funeral, but the interment at Evergreen cemetery will be private. The Rev. J. H. Franklin will conduct the services.

Mrs. Hertel had been a resident of this city for the last 17 years and had a large number of friends here. She was 71 years of age, and was the mother of Miss Gertrude Hertel, stenographer for the Stratton estate.

PLANNING STRATTON HOME

Executors of Estate Formulating Rules for Association Soon to Be Formed.

Plans for the Myron Stratton home are now under consideration by the executors of the Stratton estate who have been busy for some time formulating the rules and regulations necessary for the guidance of the Myron Stratton Home association which will be organized in the near future in accordance with the will of the late W. S. Stratton.

"According to Mr. Stratton's will," said W. A. Lloyd, yesterday, "there will have to be some sort of a separate organization formed to carry out the plans for the home and the executors are now busy preparing the rules for the guidance of this organization. I can not say just when the association will be formed to take charge of the active preparations for the home."

Mr. Stratton left the bulk of his estate, valued at about $6,000,000, for the construction and maintenance of the Myron Stratton home for the poor. Under the will the institution will be managed by three trustees, to whom the executors will turn over the assets of the estate after all claims are settled.

DEATH—Mrs. Rose Anna Murray, who has been a resident of this city for the last twenty years, died yesterday morning, aged 76, at her home, 220 East Victoria avenue. The funeral will be held from St. Mary's church tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. Interment will be in Evergreen cemetery.

What the Press Agents Say

"WHEN KNIGHTS WERE BOLD."

At the Opera House tonight Francis Wilson will present "When Knights Were Bold."

Laughter lovers have much to look forward to in the engagement of Francis Wilson in Charles Marlowe's farce, "When Knights Were Bold," in which Charles Frohman is presenting the popular comedian this evening. This merry satire on the much mooted question of ancestry, for five months earlier in the season kept Broadway, New York, laughing all the time, for the many complications brought about by the author's transporting a distinctly modern Twentieth century young man, seven hundred and ten years backward with all of his modern ideas, brings about all kinds of laughable predicaments. The part fits the star most admirably and he takes the fullest advantage of every amusing line or situation, and they are so plentiful that the comedian has ample scope. Mr. Frohman has surrounded the star with an exceptionly large and well balanced company of players, which in its entirety numbers 40 people. Mr. Wilson's leading woman is Mary Boland and in the long cast are to be found the names of such favorite players as Clarence Handysides, Campbell Collan, George Irving, Augustin Duncan, Edna Bruns, Ruth Barry, Margaret Gordon, Rae Arnold, Margherita Sergeant and others.

"DREAM CITY" COMING

A more than pleasing announcement to our amusement lovers is that among the New York successes of the past season to visit us in all its glories, is the Joseph Weber latest product "Dream City," which is announced for the Opera House Friday evening.

"Dream City" is conceded to be the cleverest and most pretentious production ever attempted by Weber and has met with the greatest success as it played to the capacity of Weber's Broadway theater at every performance all through last season. The production comes to us intact, direct from its New York run, with all of the original scenic and stage effects, gorgeous costumes, accessories, and most attractive of all a celebrated chorus of beauties, for which the Weber production has always been noted for the country over.

As Mr. Weber is retiring from the footlights after years of hard and conscientious work, he has been more than fortunate in enlisting the services of that more than clever Lilliputian comedian, Little Chip. Little Chip has in the past few years endeared himself to theatergoers the country over, most particularly through his excellent work in "Babes in Toyland" and "Wonderland," and is considered to be without a doubt the most worthy successor to Weber himself today on the American stage.

The other leading character in "Dream City" is in the hands of that majestic and cleverly painstaking commedienne Mary Marble. Miss Marble is another of those footlight favorites who have endeared themselves to theatergoers absolutely through her hard and painstaking work, coupled of course with a natural talent that never fails in winning public approval. In the role of Nancy, the daughter of the old Long Island German farmer (portrayed by Little Chip), Miss Marble is credited with giving one of the most attractive and winning portrayals of a dainty stage Miss seen on the stage in many years, which is winning her new laurels for her clever work at every performance.

AT THE EMPIRE

A large audience enjoyed one of the best bills of the season at the Empire last evening. Every act was far above the average and called for vociferous applause for the artists.

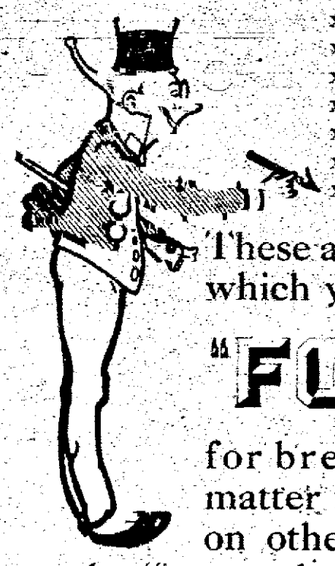

Mystico, the human chameleon was a revelation to the audience. His act is something new, entirely out of the ordinary run of vaudeville acts and was thoroughly enjoyed.

Herman and Rice were favorites in a series of original and novel acrobatic stunts the equal of which has seldom been seen in this city.

Exceptional singing, clever dancing and funny jokes by Nixon & Norton were well received and compelled this team to respond to several encores. The motion pictures and illustrated song are as good as usual.

Manager Ellis is to be congratulated upon the excellence of the programs he is giving his patrons.

NARROW ESCAPE IN FLOOD

Standard Mill Tank Bursts and Water Sweeps Albert Schmitt Down Hill.

Although swept from his feet and carried several hundred yards down the hillside in a flood of waters caused by the sudden bursting of one of the tanks on the hill above the Standard mill, Albert Schmitt, an employe at the mill, escaped serious injury. The man was working around the mill Sunday afternoon, when one of the tanks, containing 100,000 gallons of water, broke. The flood was upon him in an instant and he was powerless. When finally he landed, he found himself injured to the extent of only a few bruises. The water flooded the assay office and the basement of the main building.

The tanks have been in constant use for several years and it is thought that the wearing away of the supports caused the accident. The company will repair the damage immediately.

COLORADO CITY NEWS NOTES.

Justice J. D. Faulkner has reserved his decision in the case of Erickson vs. Boughen, which was tried in his court Friday afternoon until today. This is the case in which Erickson, a contractor and carpenter, is trying to get the balance of money alleged to be due him for building Boughen's house. Boughen claims that Erickson did not build the house according to the contract, but Erickson says that Boughen made a personal and private arrangement with him not to make the house so costly as the contract called for.

I. A. Foote & Co., one of the largest and most progressive mercantile establishments of Colorado City, have made special preparations for the week. The advent of Easter and the fact that this is pay week will undoubtedly increase the volume of business in the next few days. With these points in mind, Foote & Co. are offering to their patrons many very attractive prices. Their advertisement in this morning's Gazette gives an idea of some of them.

Minium's furniture establishment is the leading one of its kind in Colorado City. A large assortment of linoleum has just been received and is on sale at very attractive prices. Among the different designs received is the much sought after tile design. Another timely shipment just received is a full line of iron bedsteads. The range in price puts these desirable articles in reach of everyone. Besides these special offers, a complete line of household furniture is open for inspection.

Four men were fined $5 and costs each, on the charge of being intoxicated, in police court, yesterday morning. W. N. Posey was fined $10 and costs on the charge of creating a disturbance in Al Perine's saloon Saturday night. It is said that Posey tried to enter the saloon after it was closed, and because he was refused admittance broke a window.

Mrs. Katherine Williams of London, England, is visiting her brother, Jack Humble, of 927 Jefferson avenue, whom she has not seen for twenty years. She will remain here this summer and, before returning to her home, expects to visit many of the large cities in the United States.

Mrs. Minnie Harbaugh, district president of the W. C. T. U., will speak on "Compensation, or Benefits Derived From Membership in the W. C. T. U." in the hall, 412 Colorado avenue, Friday afternoon.

An important business meeting of the Ute Tribe, No. 1, Improved Order of Red Men, will be held in the Red Men hall this evening. All members are urged to attend.

[illegible] is laying off for a week on account of an injured foot, which was burned while he was working at the Golden Circle mill.

James R. Gregory, formerly chief of police of this city, returned yesterday from a short trip to his ranch in eastern Colorado.

The Women of Woodcraft will hold their regular meeting this evening in the W. O. W. hall. All members are urged to attend.

Edward Treagle has returned to this city from a business trip through Routt county, where he is thinking of establishing a cattle ranch.

The Young Men's Bible class of the First Congregational church will give an entertainment for the benefit of the church Thursday, in the church.

The Women of Woodcraft will give a social next Tuesday, April 21, in the W. O. W. hall.

DIES OF SCARLET FEVER

Three Children in One Family at Eastonville Victims.

Several families at Eastonville have been quarantined on account of scarlet fever. In the death of Mary Wicks, the 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wicks living near Eastonville, the last of three children in the family has fallen a victim to the disease, all within a period of two weeks. A pathetic feature of the case is the fact that the family has been quarantined and the parents have been unable to attend to the funerals of their children.

AN INSIDIOUS DANGER.

One of the worst features of kidney trouble is that it is an insidious disease and before the victim realizes his danger he may have a fatal malady. Take Foley Kidney Cure at the first sign of trouble, as it corrects irregularities and prevents Bright's disease and diabetes. For sale by all dealers.

CONCERNING CATTLE DIPPING

The Order Applies Only to Cattle Running on Open Range.

According to information received from the state veterinarian in regard to the order for dipping cattle, only those cattle that have been running on the open range all winter or those that are to be turned loose will be subject to the order. As most of the cattle in this county have been kept in pasture all winter, the burden on the El Paso county stock growers will be light. County Commissioner B. A. Banta stated yesterday that to the best of his knowledge, there are no cattle afflicted with scab in this county.

RAYMOND C. FARMER WEDS

Former Springs Man Marries Las Animas Girl.

Word was received in this city yesterday of the marriage in Las Animas, Bent county, last Sunday, of the Rev. Raymond C. Farmer of this city and Miss Ivy May Parker of Las Animas. They were married by the Rev. J. P. Lucas, formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Farmer are well known here. Mr. Farmer having formerly been a student at Colorado College. They will make their home for the present on a ranch in the San Luis valley.

OPEN RICH ORE IN NEVADA

Springs Men Strike It Rich in the Searchlight District.

Colorado Springs men have again struck it rich in Nevada. J. R. Booth, president of the Square Deal Mining company, returned yesterday from the Searchlight district in Nevada, where the company has a rich property. He reports that on the company's ground some of the richest ledges ever seen in the Nevada gold camps have been exposed, the ore running several hundred dollars to the ton. He brought with him samples of ore to prove his assertion.

A meeting of the stockholders of the company and their friends will be held in the company's offices in this city tonight to outline plans for the future development of the property.

NEW VEINS OPENED UP

LESSEES ON EL PASO TERRITORY IN GOOD GRADE ORE.

All Operations Are Conducted Above 600-Foot Level—New Ground Being Opened Up.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 13.—There are now about a score of lessees mining on the El Paso Consolidated company's territory on the west slope of Beacon hill, and it is reported that practically all of them are shipping out ore of good grade. This ore will run on an average about $30 in gold to the ton, and these lessees are shipping from 10 to 12 cars per week. All of this ore is being mined above the water level, which is from surface down to 600 feet, and which it was believed had been pretty thoroughly worked out on company account. Practically every lessee that started to work on the El Paso has opened up new ground and new veins.

Jones and Curr, who have a block of ground on the El Paso, have opened up some splendid ore and are shipping out a fair tonnage that is giving them returns of about $50 in gold to the ton. The Brookshire lease is making good, as is the one that is being worked by Mayor L. A. Van Tilborg, who is getting out $30 ore. There are few sets who are driving for ore and doing other development with a splendid prospect of opening up good ore within a short time.

BIGGEST AND RICHEST

TONNAGE OF VINDICATOR BEST IN CRIPPLE CREEK.

Close to 2,000 Tons a Month Shipped Out With Average Grade of $40—Dividends Maintained.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 13.—The Vindicator is maintaining splendid tonnage every month, and is enabled to pay its three cents quarterly and one cent extra dividend regularly. This company is without doubt shipping the largest tonnage of high grade ore of any mine in the camp. The tonnage runs about 2,000 tons per month and the ore is averaging $40 in gold to the ton. The best ore is to be found in the lower workings, which speaks well for the mine and the camp.

The shoots in the Vindicator are of liberal dimensions, and it is estimated that there is now in sight over $800,000 in ore, and that the company, even though not another pound of ore is uncovered, can maintain its dividends at the present rate for five years. The management has concluded to sink the shaft and work will be started soon, extending it from 1,000 to 1,200 feet, after which laterals will be extended to the ore, which, it is asserted, has been proven up already by winzes.

CURES LAME BACKS

SIMPLE PRESCRIPTION PREVENTS SERIOUS KIDNEY DISEASE.

Mix This at Home as It Is Splendid for Urinary Troubles.

More people succumb each year to some form of kidney trouble than any other cause. The slightest form of kidney derangement often develops into Bright's kidney disease, diabetes or dropsy. When either of these diseases are suspected the sufferer should at once seek the best medical attention possible. Consult only a good first-class physician, leave patent medicines alone.

There are many of the lesser symptoms of kidney trouble which can be treated at home is stated by a well-known authority. For some of these, such as backache, pain in the region of the kidneys, weak bladder, frequency (especially at night) painful scalding and other urinary troubles, try the following simple home remedy: Fluid Extract Dandelion one-half ounce, Compound Kargon one ounce, Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla three ounces. These simple ingredients are harmless and can be obtained at any good prescription pharmacy and anyone can mix them by shaking well in a bottle. The dose for adults is a teaspoonful after each meal and again at bedtime.

There is no better general remedy known to relieve all forms of rheumatism either, because its acts directly upon the kidneys and blood. It cleans the clogged up pores in the kidneys so they can filter and strain from the blood the poisonous uric acid and waste matter which if not eliminated remain in the blood, decompose and settle about the joints and muscular tissues causing the untold suffering and deformity of rheumatism.

Backache is nature's signal notifying the sufferer that the kidneys are not acting properly. "Take care of the kidneys," is now the physician's advice to his patients.

WHEAT CLOSES WEAK

MUCH STRENGTH IS APPARENT EARLY IN DAY.

Reports of Seeding in Northwest Is Bearish Influence—Corn Reaches High Mark—Oats Quiet.

CHICAGO, April 13.—The market opened strong because of dry weather in Kansas and Nebraska and small receipts in the northwest. After the first hour the volume of trade became small, but the strength was well maintained. A decrease of 195,000 bushels in the visible supply tending to sustain prices at a moderate advance. In the final hour however sentiment became bearish because of reports [illegible] northwest that seeding operations are in full swing all over the spring wheat country. The market closed weak. May opened [illegible] higher at 92⅞ to 93, sold at 93⅝ and then declined to 91⅞. The close was at 91⅝. Clearances of wheat and flour were equal to 42,000 bushels against 124,000 on the same day last year. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported receipts of 245 cars against [illegible] last week and 361 one year ago.

Corn was strong for the greater part of the day, the May delivery selling at 68⅝ which was a new high mark for the season. Light receipts and the strength of wheat were the principal bullish influences. Some weakness developed during the final hour because of increased country acceptances. The close was easy. May opened unchanged at 67⅝ to 68, advanced to 68⅝ and then declined to 67⅝. The close was at 67¾. Local receipts were 77 cars, with 11 of contract grade.

Trading in oats was quiet. The market opened unchanged at 57⅝ to 58, advanced to but weakened on favorable weather for seed. The close was easy. May opened ⅛ higher at 58¾, sold up to 54 and then declined to 53⅝, where it closed. Local receipts were 147 cars.

Provisions opened firm because of the strength of grain but later weakened on a 10c decline in live hogs and the easier tone of wheat and corn. At the close May pork was off 22½c at $13.62; lard was down 10c at $8.27½; ribs were 5@7½c lower at $7.15.

$30 ORE IN CLARA D.

Birdsall and Associates Working on Three-Foot Vein.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 13.—Birdsall and associates, operating on the South Clara D. claim of the Lexington company on Gold hill, are now breaking ore about three feet wide at an approximate depth of 150 feet, which is giving returns of about $25 or $30 in gold to the ton. There is quite a good sized tonnage being shipped out from the Lexington dump and this ore is giving values of from $8 to $12 per ton. Practically all of the territory owned by the Lexington company is now under lease and very fair tonnage is being maintained every month.

STOCKS ARE SLUGGISH

TONE OF THE MARKET IS DECIDEDLY HEAVY.

Further Evidence Given of the Restriction Within Professional Limits. Bonds Already.

NEW YORK, April 13.—The stock market today gave further evidence of its restriction within professional limits and fell into a dull rut, in which little significance attached to the sluggish fluctuations in prices. The tone was heavy which is almost inevitably the case in a profoundly dull market. Some of the heaviness was of foreign inspiration and London sold on balance in this market. Paris continued to withdraw gold from London and prices continued to harden at that center, while a further rise in foreign exchange rates here brought conditions near to the level at which London could shift the Paris demand for gold shipments to New York. London remittances to Paris represent the completion of the repayment of advances made during the New York financial crisis and its reflected results in foreign markets. There seems to be some speculative troubles in Paris due to disturbances in the diamond and copper trades, which induced liquidation by Paris in the London stock market.

An unofficial announcement was made in New York, that the selling agency of the principal copper producers had marked down the selling price of copper, thus conforming to the last week's successive reductions in the London market and at the New York metal exchange. For this reason, Amalgamated Copper was a leader in the early downward movement of prices. The amount of the subscriptions at Berlin to the new German and Prussian loans, although fully covering the issues, seemed to be considered disappointing, thus adding one more to the unfavorable influences from abroad. The improvement in investment issues in foreign markets was in consequence checked.

Domestic events offered little to offset these foreign influences. Railroad traffic officials reported that there was no change in conditions and [illegible] disposition to postpone the date of expected revival. The same was true of advances on the commercial situation and complaints were heard from some centers of a relapse into somewhat critical conditions in trade. The approach of the Easter holidays was a repressive factor on all speculative markets and this was emphasized by the decision to close the stock exchange from Thursday of this week until Monday of next week.

Crop prospects begin to have a more effective influence on the market and reports of a continued lack of moisture in parts of the winter wheat belt received some attention.

The appearance of the Illinois Central circular, proposing the offerings of 15 per cent of holdings in New York to stockholders at par presents the subject of new capital issues which must be provided for in large volume in the near future. The depressing effect of Saturday's Delaware and Hudson [illegible] announcement on that stock did not imply a mood of satisfaction with the prospect.

The money market showed the further effect of the growing accumulation of idle money in New York, which is looked to pave the way for success in new capital issues. Banks were somewhat less inclined today, however, to press their funds on the market. Known as specialties were without influence on the general list.

Bonds steady. Total sales, par value, $3,372,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call.

ORE RUNS CLOSE TO $35

Regular Shipment Sent Out From the Free Coinage Group.

Special to The Gazette.

CRIPPLE CREEK, April 13.—J. D. A. Carper, who has a long-time lease on the entire holdings of the Free Coinage group on Bull hill is now making regular shipments of ore that give returns ranging from $25 to $35 in gold to the ton. The ore for the most part is being mined above the 300-foot level, while several sets of sublessees are making regular shipments of a good grade of ore. This lease is producing about four or five cars of ore a week and all concerned are reported to be making money. The shoots vary in width from three to seven and eight feet, and for a while there was one vein that was over 20 feet in width. Mr. Carper is continually doing a large amount of development work and opening up the ore.

NOT TRUE. It was erroneously reported in the evening paper yesterday that the Dunbar Y. M. C. A. team played a game of baseball on sunday. No team representing this institution engaged in such a game, according to President Adam Jones.

Bride's silver should receive quality consideration first. The fact that it was chosen from our stock is sufficient assurance of quality.

The price paid does not necessarily bear relation to the quality obtained. We strive to combine quality, excellence and attractive price. But never is quality sacrificed for price.

Our silver stock contains attractive pieces priced from one dollar upward. The same excellence of quality prevails throughout. The most careful consideration is given to the selection of our stock, whether the price is great or little.
